Kensington, April 23.

THE following Addreſs from the Borough of Wendover, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Richard Hampden Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Wendover in the County of Bucks.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE Conſideration of the ſignal and continued Succeſs that has attended Your Majeſty, ever ſince Your happy Acceſſion to the Throne, entirely removes the Surprize that would otherwiſe have been cauſed, by the Conſummation of ſo nice and difficult an Undertaking as an Union between England and Scotland; and convinces all the World, That nothing that Your Majeſty ſhall judge may be conducive to the Good of Mankind in general, and of Your Subjects in particular, can fail having its deſired Effect, as far as Prudence, Policy and Courage, can bring it to Perfection.

We beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will never, in the leaſt, be acceſſary to the weakening or diſſolving what You have ſo happily accompliſh'd; but ſhall contribute, to the utmoſt of our Power, to the ſupporting an Union, that will tend ſo effectually to the Removal of thoſe Occaſions of Diſpute that have frequently interrupted the Peace and Quiet of the Two Kingdoms, and the fatal Conſequences attending them: An Union that has added ſuch new Luſtre to Your Majeſty's Reign and Government, and will, by conducing ſo conſiderably to the Protection and Maintenance of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, procure us a firm and laſting Security againſt the Enemies of our common Welfare.

We have moſt juſt Cauſe to be perſwaded, that the ſaid Hand of Divine Providence, that has ſo eminently appeared in the beginning of Your Reign, will accompany the whole Courſe of it; and as it has aſſiſted You in juſtly putting a Reſtraint to the reſtleſs and unlimited Deſigns of an ambitious and unſatiable Monarch, ſo 'twill enable You to reſtore a ſafe and honourable Peace to Europe, and will long continue You to be the Support of the Proteſtant Religion, and a Protection and Bleſſing to Your ſecurely united Subjects at home.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Bedford was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Farrer Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bayliff's, Common-Council Men, and other Inhabitants, of Your Majeſty's Corporation and Borough of Bedford, do humbly congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy Union of Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland; by which, as we hope, the malicious Deſigns of Your Majeſty's Enemies, to Dethrone Your Majeſty, and Subvert the Government, will be fruſtrated: So we doubt not, but by it, the Glory, Honour and Power, of Great Britain, will daily more and more increaſe and flouriſh; and Your Majeſty's wiſe Adminiſtration, by which, under the Divine Providence, this great Work (ſo often by Your Predeceſſors in vain attempted) was accompliſh'd, will, by the preſent, and all future Ages, be admired, and Your Majeſty's Name remembred, with the greateſt Veneration, until Time ſhall be no more. May the ſame Almighty Power, which hath hitherto, ſtill protect and guide Your Sacred Majeſty thro' the whole Courſe of Your Reign, which we earneſtly pray may be long and proſperous; and that we may contribute what in us lies to make it ſo, we firmly reſolve, as 'tis our Duty, to be ſteddy in our Loyalty to Your Majeſty, and, as You have been graciouſly pleas'd to adviſe us, to live as becomes us, in perfect Love and Friendſhip with our fellow Subjects. In Witneſs whereof, the ſaid Corporation have hereunto affix'd their Common Seal, and the other Inhabitants have ſet their Hands, the 16th Day of April, and in the Sixth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

Both which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Valentia, March 19. N. S. Our Troops are preparing to take the Field, ſo ſoon as the Magazines which are providing for their Subſiſtence can be got ready. They are much ſuperiour in Foot to the Enemy. The King of Spain went from hence lately to Barcelona. Mr. Stanhope, Her Majeſty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary, is on his Departure thither to attend his Majeſty.

Perpignan, April 14. The Duke de Noailles arrived here the 7th Inſtant from the French Court. The next Day Orders were diſpatch'd to all the French Troops quartered in theſe Parts, to take the Field, and he march'd with them towards Thuy, but was ſoon after obliged to ſend them into Quarters for want of Forage. We have an Account from Barcelona, That King Charles III. of Spain arrived there the 22d paſt; That the States of Catalonia being ſummoned thither, met the 24th, and granted a Subſidy to his Catholick Majeſty for the raiſing of 4 Regiments of Foot, and one of Horſe; and that he had given Orders for the reinforcing of the Gariſon of Gironne to 3000, and that of Lerida to 2000 Men.

Turin, April 13. Count Thaun arrived here the 8th Inſtant from Milan, and has had ſeveral Conferences with our Duke, upon the Meaſures to be taken for the more effectual proſecuting the War the next Campaign. The Preparations for that purpoſe are carried on in theſe Parts with all poſſible Diligence and Application, and all the Military Officers in his Royal Highneſs's Service are ordered to be in their reſpective Poſts before the 10th of the next Month. A conſiderable Magazine of Proviſions and Ammunition is erecting at Coni, where there is alſo to be an Hoſpital for the uſe of the Confederate Troops. The Enemy being apprehenſive that an Iruption into Dauphine is intended, are fortifying ſeveral Places on the Avenues of that Province. We hear they have undermined the Fortifications of Suſa, with deſign to blow them up, if they find themſelves obliged to abandon that Place.

Milan, April 16. This Day Prince Eugene took Poſſeſſion of this City and Dutchy, and received the Oaths of Allegiance of the Deputies of the ſeveral Courts of Juſtice, and other Bodies of the Inhabitants of this City, in the Name of our lawful Soveraign King Charles III. and upon this Occaſion Te Deum was ſung, and a treble Diſcharge was made of our Cannon, with other publick Demonſtrations of the general Joy of the People here, for their Deliverance from the Oppreſſion of a French Government. The Enemy have withdrawn their Gariſons out of Cremona, and all the other Places they were poſſeſs'd of: Thoſe Troops are now marching towards Dauphine; and this Dutchy, with that of Mantua and the neighbouring Countries, enjoy a perfect Tranquility.

Vienna, April 16. Count Guido Staremberg ſet out from hence the 13th Inſtant for Hungary, in order to aſſemble the Imperial Forces on that ſide, and to carry a new Supply of Proviſions and other Neceſſaries to Leopolſtad, Great Waradin, and ſome other Places. We hear from Hungary, That Prince Ragotzki, having taken upon him the Title of Prince of Tranſilvania, cauſed himſelf to be proclaimed as ſuch in ſeveral Places in that Country on the 28th paſt; and that he has put off the great Council of the Chief of his Adherents, which was to have been held at Onod on the firſt of next Month, to the firſt of June.

Hague, April 29. N. S. A Squadron of the Regiment of Saxe Norbourg came into this Place the 26th paſt, being to remain here in Gariſon in the room of the Horſe-Guards, which march'd yeſterday for Brabant. The Duke of Wirtemberg, Baron Hompeſch, and ſeveral other Officers who were in Town, are gone to their reſpective Commands. The Deputies of the States General, and of the Council of State, that are to be with the Army this Campaign, are alſo gone for Bruſſels.

Falmouth, April 19. This Day arrived here Her Majeſty's Ship the Cambridge, Capt. Littleton Commander, having on Board the Earl Rivers and the Earl of Eſſex, with ſome other Officers, and Her Majeſty's Ships the Seaford and Fubbs Yacht; they ſailed from Lisbon the 2d Inſtant.

Falmouth, April 19. On the 16th Inſtant put in here the Herring-Fiſhery of Rotterdam, from Sharrant, Jacob Roſe Maſter, laden with Wine; and the Good Merchant of Zurickzee from Bourdeaux, laden with Wine, Cornelius Arjan Poſt, Maſter. The 17th came in the Dimirick, a Privateer of Jerſey, Philip Shoomith Commander. This Day ſailed hence the Queen Packet-Boat for Lisbon, Capt. Culverdine Commander.

Plimouth, April 20. On the 16th came in here a Dane from Dram, bound for this Place. The 17th arrived here another Dane bound for Briſtol. The 19th put in here two Danes from Bergen, bound for St. Ubes; and this Day ſailed two Danes for Dram, and a Dutch Ship from France.

Briſtol, April 19. Yeſterday ſailed out of Kingroad Her Majeſty's Ship the Lizard for Milford, and the Succeſs for Glaſgow. This Day arrived here the Samuel of this Place from Waterford, but laſt from Minehead.

Yarmouth, April 21. On the 19th Inſtant came into our Road Her Majeſty's Ship the Dunwich from the Southward, and under her Convoy ſeveral Ships bound for Stockholme, who continue here, with ſeveral other light Colliers, waiting for a fair Wind. Yeſterday paſſed through our Road a Fleet of laden Colliers to the Southward, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ships the Nightingale and Queenborough.
